

Federica Mogherini speaks with the Libyan Prime Minister Fayez Al Sarraj

Bruxelles, 17/01/2017 - 17:57 - UNIQUE ID: 170117_9

Press releases

Federica Mogherini speaks with the Libyan Prime Minister Fayez Al Sarraj

Today, the High Representative/Vice President Federica Mogherini spoke at length with the Libyan Prime Minister Fayez Al Sarraj. They discussed the political and security situation in Libya and the support that the European Union provides to the Government of National Accord and to the Libyan people. The regional context and initiatives were also passed in review, with the aim of supporting an effective outcome.

The HRVP reaffirmed the EU's full commitment to supporting the political process and the priorities defined by Libya in a number of areas, including migration and border control.

Federica Mogherini invited the Prime Minister to Brussels in the coming weeks to continue working together.

Author

EEAS press team - Contacts

The EEAS press team is the key contact point for the journalists interested in the European Union's foreign affairs and security policy. We provide information about the policy priorities, proposals and decisions to the press, we organise press events and we issue press material and statements.