

President of Ukraine held a phone conversation with Federal Chancellor of Germany

20 February 2018 - 17:10

President Petro Poroshenko held a phone conversation with Federal Chancellor of Germany Angela Merkel on the fourth anniversary of the events on Maidan.

The parties discussed the course of implementation of the Minsk agreements and stressed the need for consolidation of the ceasefire regime.

Special attention was paid to the release of hostages. The parties emphasized the necessity of continuing the common work for the liberation of all Ukrainian hostages and political prisoners as soon as possible.

Petro Poroshenko and Angela Merkel shared views on the issues related to the restoration of the efficient work of the Special Center for Control and Coordination in the Donbas and the opportunity of deploying the UN peacekeeping mission in certain districts of Donetsk and Luhansk regions.

The parties discussed further interaction on the implementation of the program of reforms in Ukraine.

Petro Poroshenko and Angela Merkel agreed to maintain contacts on the above mentioned issues, inter alia, in the Normandy format.
