Statement by the Spokesperson on Sudanese human rights defender Dr Mudawi

The EU closely follows the human rights situation in Sudan.

The recent presidential pardon of two pastors in Sudan is an encouraging step regarding religious freedom in the country. Jan Figel, the Special Envoy, Freedom of Religion or Belief outside the EU, was able to meet with human rights defender Dr Ibrahim Mudawi in his place of detention in March 2017. The length of detention and delays in due process remain a source of concern. The EU supports the recent call by UN Independent Expert, Aristide Nonon for the immediate release of Dr Mudawi and of Hafiz Idris, another human rights defender.

Despite progress in the national dialogue, space for civil society is shrinking in Sudan, as demonstrated by delays in registration of NGOs, and the arrest and court cases of human rights defenders. All human rights defenders need to be able to carry out their legitimate human rights activities free of restrictions and without fear of reprisals.
