

High level international Seminar

REINFORCING MARITIME CAPABILITIES IN THE HORN OF AFRICA : TOWARDS AN INNOVATIVE ARCHITECTURE SUPPORTING THE GLOBAL APPROACH

Paris - Ecole Militaire (Amphi. Foch) - 16 July 2012

Draft Agenda

8:15-9am	Registration
9am-9:30	Opening address Mr Jean-Yves Le Drian Minister of Defence, France
9:30-9:45	Objectives of the Seminar Mr Michel Miraillet Director for Strategic Affairs, Ministry of Defence, France
9h45-10h15	Panel of introduction Rear-Admiral Matesi, Deputy Commander of the European Union operation Atalanta Mr Michel Quillé, Deputy director, Operations, EUROPOL
10:15-10:30	Coffee break (Photo)
10:30-12:00	Panel 1 – What missions and means for an integrated security, safety and maritime development operator? Moderator : Mr Robert Missen, Head of the "Security of land and sea transports" Unit, European Commission, DG MOVE The missing capabilities and functions - Restoring State capabilities and coastguard function Admiral Jacques Launay, Former General Inspector for the Navy Vice Admiral Philippe Coindreau, Former Tactical Commander of the EU Operation Atalanta - Integrated management of coastal zones (economic development, management of natural resources, environment) and Fisheries in Somalia (developing an alternative industry to criminal employment) Mrs Michele Kuruc, Service Coordinator, Fisheries and Aquaculture, FAO Which solutions can the European Industry bring to the capacity needs? Mr Philippe Bohn, Corporate Vice-President, Head of Business Development, EADS Mr Marko Erman, Senior Vice-President for Research and Technology, THALES Mr Bernard Planchais, Associate Director General, DCNS
12:00-1:30	Lunch (upon invitation)
1:30-3pm	Panel 2 – Towards a public-private co-management of the funding of public maritime routes safety Moderator: Vice-amiral d'escadre (2S) Jean-Marie Van Huffel, Special Counsellor for the General Secretary of the Sea Disconnecting Maritime security from financial stakes: global security and consensus of interests Mr Jean-Alexis Tanchou, Director, OPERA Financial contribution for the private use of the maritime routes Mr Jacques Attali, Honorary member of the Council of State and President of PlaNet Finance Financial contribution for the private use of the maritime routes: an innovative funding for development Mr Julien Meimon, Permanent Secretary of the UN lead group for innovative funding Investments in equipments and integrated operational systems: coping with the insolvability of coastal States through innovative international public-private partnerships (PPP) for international maritime security Mr Jérôme Pentecoste, Lawyer, Watson Farley & Williams An innovative way ahead in line with the "Montego Bay" Convention Mr Xavier de la Gorce, Former General Secretary of the Sea

3pm-3:15

Coffee Break

Panel 3 – Which governance for public maritime routes?

Moderator: H.E. Mr Benoît d'Aboville

The situation in the Strait of Malacca: lessons learned

H.E. Mr Rahim Bin Hussin, Assistant Secretary, Maritime Safety Policy, National Security Council, Malaysia

3:15-4:45

Contributors/Prescribers: an innovative, proactive principle

Mr Giles Noakes, BIMCO

Towards an unprecedented international public-private governance

Mr Jack Lang, Special Counsellor to the United Nations Secretary General

A successful innovation to take up a strategic challenge

EUROCONTROL

4:45-5pm

Break

Synthesis and Conclusion

Wrap-up

H.E. Admiral Jacques Lanxade

Ambassador of France

Point of view of the States of the region

Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Djibouti (speaker to be confirmed)

Mr Mohamed Saïd Rage

Puntland Somalia State Minister in charge of Ports, maritime transport and counter-piracy

Mr Hassan Mohamed Saïd Gacaliye Samantar

Galmudug Somalia State Minister for fishing, maritime resources and ports

Mr Mohamed Moallin Hassan

Head of Cabinet of the President of the Somalia Transition Federal Government

5pm-5:45

Closing speech

Mr Michel Miraillet

Director for Strategic Affairs, Ministry of Defence, France

