

Brigadier General Jochen Deuer

Diploma in Business Administration (FH)
Born on 24 August 1966 in Mainz
Married

MILITARY CAREER

- 1986 Entry into the Bundeswehr and officer training
- 1988 – 1992 Course of study in business administration, Bundeswehr University, MUNICH
- 1992 – 1994 Platoon leader and company commander, 740th Supply Company, MAINZ
- 1994 – 1996 Company commander, 6th/310th Supply Battalion, ULM
- 1996 – 1999 Head of logistics, French-German Supply Battalion, French-German Brigade, MÜLLHEIM
→ SFOR mission January to May 1997, SARAJEVO
- 1999 – 2003 National General/Admiral Staff Officer Course, HAMBURG, subsequently French General Staff Officer Course “École de Guerre”, PARIS
- 2003 – 2005 G6 Op, STRASBOURG
→ ISAF mission as head of liaison body for Afghan ministries July 2004 to February 2005, KABUL
- 2005 – 2007 Assistant Chief of Branch, FMoD Armed Forces Staff Fü S VI 2, BONN
- 2007 – 2009 Battalion Commander, 7th Logistics Battalion, UNNA
→ ISAF mission as Commander, Logistic Support Battalion and Contingent Units Commander July to November 2008, MAZAR-E-SHARIF
- 2009 – 2011 Chief of Army Operational Logistics and G3, Force Development, School of Land Systems Technology, AACHEN
- 2011 – 2013 Exchange officer, Planning, Capability Division/International Relations, Ministry of the Armed Forces, PARIS
- 2013 – 2015 G4, Rapid Response Forces Division (RRFD)
Chief of Staff, RRFD December 2014 to August 2015
- 2015 – 2016 German participant, “Cours des Hautes Études Militaires (CHEM)”, PARIS
- 2016 – 2017 Deputy Chief of International Relations Section, German Joint Support Service Headquarters (now German Joint Support and Enabling Service Headquarters), BONN
- 2017 – 2018 Chief of Staff, Bundeswehr Logistics Command, ERFURT
- 2018 – 2021 Chief of Central Affairs Branch, Office of the Chief of Defence, BERLIN
- February 2021 Beginning of preparations for EUTM Mali mission

Hobbies: sports

