

Karin Limdal is the Acting Head of Mission (HoM) of EUPOL COPPS since 1 November 2023. She has 20 years of experience working in the field of peace and security, primarily in the field of EU's Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP), both in CSDP missions and in the EU's External Action Service (EEAS).

Before joining EUPOL COPPS as its DHoM/CoS and shortly after becoming its Acting HoM, she was the Head of Sector for Political Content and Focus Management at the European Centre of Excellence for Civilian Crisis Management in Berlin. Previously she worked for six years as a Senior Capability Development Planner and as a Strategic Planner on CSDP in the EEAS. She has held positions in several CSDP missions including as the Political Adviser to EUPOL COPPS, Head of the Press- and Public Information Office and Senior Spokesperson of EULEX Kosovo and Political Adviser/Public Information Adviser for the European Union Planning Team for Kosovo (EUPT). Prior to joining the EUPT she worked for the CSDP mission Aceh Monitoring Mission (AMM) in Indonesia as well as twice for the Temporary International Presence in the city of Hebron (TIPH) in the OpT.

She is active as a moderator, lecturer and mentor on civilian CSDP, civilian capability development and political advising. Karin holds a Master's degree in Political Science from the University of Gothenburg, Sweden, is married and has one son.

---